

TREVENNA DIRECTIONS

Located within rural Cornwall on the Southern slopes of Bodmin Moor, Trevenna is easily accessible, less than 3 miles from the A38, 4 miles from the A30 and 10 minutes from Bodmin Parkway Rail Station.

SAT NAV WARNING: Trevenna's postcode is PL14 6NR. However, keep an eye on these directions as Sat Nav may direct you into a neighbouring field. The direct route is unlikely to be the fastest.

Recommended route by car is from the A30

If you are travelling down from North of Exeter, the A30 route avoids Plymouth and is quicker than the A38 route.
In either direction on the A30, turn off at the Colliford Lake junction.

Off the A30 from Exeter direction

From the M5 & A30 junction at Exeter, Trevenna is approximately 50 minutes drive along the A30.
Look out for the brown signs for Jamaica Inn about 10 miles before Bodmin. Stay on the A30 and travel past the Jamaica Inn junction for another 2 miles.
Look out for the Colliford Lake turning, and turn left off the A30.
Take care as this junction has a short slip road.
Look out for our small signs. These are not illuminated.

Off the A30 from Bodmin direction

Look out for the Colliford Lake junction about 10 miles from Bodmin.
Turn right across the A30.
Take care when crossing the A30 dual carriage way and turning into the Colliford Lake junction as other road users may be coming along the slip road.
Look out for our small signs (see image on the next page).

From the A38

There are a number of roads leading to the village of St. Neot which are sign posted off the A38, about half way between Liskeard & Bodmin.
Follow any of these signs and drive into the centre of the village towards the Church and London Inn pub. Trevenna is approx. 1.5 miles from the pub.
With the pub on your right hand side, head down through the village, past the shop, over the bridge and continue up the hill.
a) At the top of the hill go over a Cattle Grid and immediately take the right fork.
b) At the next cross roads take the right hand road and drive over the Cattle Grid.
c) After about 400 metres, there is a sharp left hand bend (known as Banana Corner). Turn right here at the Trevenna signs. (see image on the next page). Take care when turning into Trevenna off this road.
